Solutions to Isolation and Loneliness LAN November 14th

The need for solutions to social isolation and loneliness has never been greater. Solutions consist of developing communities and teams that are cognizant of such solutions nurture a social construct of personal empowerment. An organization that values social connectedness, inclusion and a growth mindset will allow their community and staff to thrive in skills of emotional intelligence, empathy, connectedness, team cohesiveness and resiliency. Presented by Great Plains QIN, join Dr. Holloway and register here: GPQIN LAN Event.

Addressing Transportation Needs

On October 27th the ESRD NCC hosted a webinar on Addressing Transportation Needs. There was a lot of interest in this topic but not everyone was able to attend.
